Micro-sermon –Friendship - In friendship we discover the fully formed personhood of our friend. We encounter all that makes them themselves, unique and irreplaceable—the things about them we like and the things we don't. We come to recognize that they are their own world, and Christ dwells in all of it, not just our own points of commonality. Christ dwells in all that makes them them—and we come to love them for it. Br. Lain Wilson, SSJE
